Matthew 10:8; 8:23-27

In time of trouble we often respond to the _____ and not to God...
Lord, help me be strong in the storm...make this storm go away...give me wisdom in this storm. Lord, wake up – don't you care!

We have spent a lot of time responding to the _____ and _____ of politicians, doctors, scientist, YouTube, bible prophets, social media, conspiracy theorists, fear, anxiety, anger, uncertainty, real losses of income, health issues, experts who tell us how...

Responding to God in a storm _____ some important _____.

1) We see how He sees the _____:

We see His peace—He is sleeping. We see His power—He says SHHH!

We see His love for His friends—“Little Faith”

2) We keep _____:

God's instructions have not changed. God's mission has not changed.

God's presence has not diminished.

3) Our faith _____:

This storm was preparation for a mission not another storm.

Compassion keeps flowing. What I have been given, I am to give.

If this crisis does not cause us to be more _____ – then to whom have we really _____?

“Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give.” ~ Jesus Matthew 10:8
