1 Samuel 17:4-7, 10-11, 25-30, 32-37, 45, 57

When chosen by God to be king, David goes to work as a _____ . David was _____ , but his responsibilities remained the same.

The enemy lacks _____ .

His has _____ of shame, intimidation, discouragement, and provocation. God, I _____ to follow you but...

David is very _____ in the reward: wife, money, and the fame. Notice this doesn't _____ David from being a man after God's own heart.

I _____ them, but it was _____ who saved me. David has clarity, confidence, and _____ .

David's _____ is in God's help, not his capabilities. David _____ what God has done before.

We place our hope in what we _____ on or who we depend on. The degree that we _____ is the degree of our _____ if it fails.

God's _____ is David's, too—because David placed his _____ in God.

God doesn't need _____ to accomplish _____ . God, _____ is in you.
