

HOW TO GET
what you really want

James 4:1-3; Exodus 20:17; 1 Peter 1:12

My way: Doesn't matter what I want . What matters is I get it my way.

Every regret we have began with I want.

Regret ends with I want to go back and not get what I wanted.

Covet is an inordinate desire, or an out -of- order desire.

Good things made into ultimate things.

As long as we insist on having our own way, we won't get what we really want.

We don't get what we want so we blame.

His fault, their fault, God's fault....

Pursuing pleasure ultimately leaves us wanting for more.

The 10th commandment is the commandment of the heart.

If you can keep this one, you will keep all of the rest.

Ultimate things are the things I really want.

What do you want? What do you really want?

Do you know the difference?

Do you really want the grace of God? Or, do you want it?
