Ikea effect: things are more valuable because you _____ it.

Endowment effect: things that remind me of me are more _____.

God's _____ is actively holding us back from sin.

When we turn away from trusting God it often _____ us what we are capable of doing.

In a _____ relationship we are recognizing God's greatness and goodness exceeds our own. This is why God is obsessed with _____.

We don't deserve the _____ that we have.

It's a gift and a _____.

When God gets angry it is because people have lost sight of something truly _____. We are _____ because we are God's.

Our God-gifted _____ is discovered in what God can see ahead and not what we can see.

_____ is measured in sacrifice and trust.

God continually _____ into David's sin and redeems and restores. This is God's great _____.

Worship is our response to _____; and, worship is the catalyst to our _____.
